"How can I build a verified record of my research activities, with automatic updating, and that is interoperable with all the different institutions, funders, and publishers I work with?"
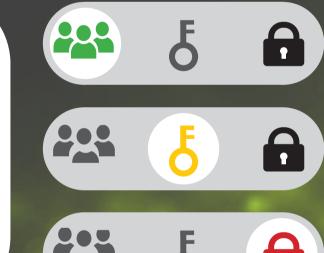

What is ORCID?

Your ORCID iD is a unique number which identifies you as a researcher. ORCID is an international, interdisciplinary, open, non-proprietary, and not-for-profit organization.

You're in control

Register for your ORCID iD today, and stand out in the sea of researchers. You control when and where you use your iD. You manage connections to your iD, including deciding who gets to add what information, and whether and by whom this data may be viewed and accessed.

Why should you register?

Your iD:

- distinguishes you and ensures your research outputs and activities are correctly attributed to you
- reliably and easily connects you with your contributions and affiliations
- reduces form-filling (enter data once, re-use it often)
- improves recognition and discoverability for you and your research outputs
- is interoperable (works with many institutions, funders, and publishers)
- is persistent (enduring)
